

Eurythmist Teacher

The East Bay Waldorf School is seeking a warm, imaginative, and mature Eurythmist teacher who has an Accredited Eurythmy Training Certificate, ideally completed Waldorf Teacher Training, and has previous Waldorf teaching experience, a grounding in anthroposophy and a Bachelor's Degree or higher. All teachers must have excellent communication skills, the ability to plan and organize instruction, and the equanimity to work well with young children and their parents. The Eurythmy Teacher is an active member of our Faculty responsible for carrying the eurythmy portion of the Waldorf curriculum for classes from early childhood through Grades.

Our Campus

East Bay Waldorf School is an independent AWSNA- and WECAN-accredited school located in El Sobrante, California in the beautiful, thriving East Bay hills – just minutes from Berkeley and San Francisco. Our site combines the best of two worlds: an idyllic natural setting with open fields and biodynamic gardens, adjacent to regional parks and wild lands, and within thirty minutes of the major cultural and urban centers of the San Francisco Bay.

Our School

Our school was founded in 1980 and offers a complete Preschool-8th Grade Waldorf education, as well as thriving Parent-Child and Parent Education programs. For the 2020-2021 school year EBWS will serve approximately 150 students, from infancy through Grade 8. We have excellent teachers, an active parent body, a strong board and serve as the campus for the Bay Area Center for Waldorf Teacher Training (BACWTT).

Our People

Through strong collegial collaboration, grounded in a solid commitment to anthroposophy, the faculty works out of a consensus type model. Our teachers are committed to lifelong learning and developing themselves both personally and professionally. Knowing how to build and maintain strong relationships with students, parents and colleagues is essential. We offer a competitive benefits package to full time faculty, with additional compensation for experience.
