

Waldorf in Color: A Storytelling Experience for BIPOC Waldorf Educators

Each week, we'll meet as a community of BIPOC Waldorf educators to share our stories of teaching and living in Waldorf communities. Using art, we will reflect on what we uniquely bring and offer as BIPOC educators as well as explore the challenges of Waldorf spaces for BIPOC and what, if anything, there is to salvage.

Four Sundays, 12-2pm PT/3-5pm ET

Virtual Sessions

7/24/22: What do we bring as BIPOC Waldorf educators?

9/18/22: What seeds do we plant and what grows in our gardens?

12/4/22: What are obstacles to feeling a sense of belonging?

1/29/23: Is there anything to be salvaged if we were to move into a new BIPOC-led era of Waldorf?
